1. International Women's Day Events

March 8 is celebrated across the world as International Women's Day (IWD) and provides an opportunity to recognise the achievements of women and their contribution to society. On this day, women can celebrate the progress that has been made but also contemplate those areas of women's lives where more can be done. Women's access to education, health care and paid labour has improved, and legislation that promises equal opportunities for women and respect for their human rights has been adopted in many countries.

However, nowhere in the world can women claim to have all the same rights and opportunities as men, and until we all work together to secure the rights and full potential of women, lasting solutions to social, economic and political problems are unlikely to be found. This year, as IWD falls on a Saturday, most IWD events will be held on Friday 7th March. Be aware of these three Perth-based events!

Traditionally, many of our members attend the Soroptimists' breakfast at Burswood on Swan. This event will be opened by Mrs Julie Jeffery, wife of the WA Governor and guest speaker will be Melissa Parkes, Federal Member for Fremantle who In November 1999, accepted a job with the UN Mission in Kosovo. Since that time Melissa has also worked for the UN in Gaza, Beirut, Cyprus, and New York, and her varied roles have encompassed the investigation of terrorist crimes in the Middle East and the establishment of a UN Ethics Office.

Of special significance is the launching of UNIFEM WA at a breakfast event being held at Perth Town Hall from 7am to 9am. The event will be opened by the Lord Mayor of Perth, Lisa Scaffidi with guest speakers Milena Pires, the Civil Society Development Specialist for the East Timor Justice Sector Support Facility and possibly also Bob McMullen, the Parliamentary Secretary for AusAID. This event is organized by UNIFEM Australia, Australian Local Government Women's Association, Business and Professional Women's Association and the National Council of Women. Proceeds from the event will go to UNIFEM.

If you will be in Bunbury, go to Bunbury Cathedral Grammar School and support the Zonta Club of Bunbury's IWD breakfast with guest speaker Barbara Etter.

If you want to make a day of it, why not go along to the Perth Convention Exhibition Centre where there will be a special Lunch Box Lunch List, Worldly Women Event? This event usually attracts over 600 women – three quarters of whom are high school students. The event begins with 10.30am with a Careers Expo, where our Club will have a stand, and continue with presentations by four inspirational young women: Sam Johnson was the 2005 WA Young Office Professional of the Year, Jade Lewis is an author, youth mentor and State Drug Summit 2001 co-chair, Caty Price is a Network Ten sports journalist and Ren Balakrishnan is a tax advisor, women's rights advocate and university academic. The tickets are usually $88 but our Club members may attend for $55. Please let Carole know if you would like to help out on the stand.

Make plans to participate and join in the celebrations of IWD 2008!

York Residency Museum – definitely worth a visit!

2. York Residency Museum Display

Are you planning a trip to York soon? Then why not pop in to the York Residency Museum to see the eye-opening 'Four Women's Stories' that explores what life in the bush was REALLY like for women from 1870 to the present day. This exhibition really gives an unusual insight into the home, leisure time and personal lives of four very different women who were and are part of the fabric of York.

The Museum is open from 1-3pm on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays and 11am-3.30pm at weekends. Other attractions in York can be found through the York Visitor Centre tel 9641 1301 e info@yorkwa.org or www.yorkwa.org.

3. Zontians and friends in the news

Congratulations go to Agnes Vacca who was recently appointed as a partner with PKF, Chartered Accountants and Business Advisors – the first female partner in the Perth office. "My philosophy is to understand and care about our clients' businesses as if they were my own. I enjoy working with clients to meet their financial and business succession objectives." Well done Agnes, your philosophy is obviously paying off!

Kay Poustie of the Zonta Club of Perth Northern Suburbs was recently awarded an a Medal of the Order of Australia (OAM) in recognition of her outstanding contribution to the library service and Zonta International. All members that know Kaye will be in total agreement with this PNS newsletter description– 'Kaye has a fantastic sense of community, is always generous with her time and is a wonderful role model to all Zontians'.

Rachel Thomson (Area 3 winner of the Jane M Klausman Scholarship 2007) has recently been awarded the UWA Centenary Trust for Women's Marita Trezise Memorial Scholarship. She says that this 'has allowed me to dedicate myself to my studies, without having to work long hours during semester or choose between paying the rent and buying textbooks. It also gave me a confidence boost which helped me go after (and get) the job of my dreams...now that I've finished by Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor or Economics, things won't slow down – in 2008 I am getting married, going overseas to work and travel for a year, and then returning to Australia in 2009 to take up a position as a Business Analyst with McKinsey and Compay with the hope of one day working as a business ethicist

It is with much regret that the Board recently received Joy Merigan's resignation from the Club. Joy took a leave of absence last year as she was going through a hectic time with family, work and travel commitments – and as things are just as busy now, she doesn't have the time to properly participate and contribute to the goals of Zonta. Joy was a valuable Zontian and, since 2001, made a great contribution to the Club, taking on many roles and facing new challenges with a smile! We wish Joy well with her future endeavours and thank her for her active involvement with the Club.

Stop press....Congratulations also go to new 'Nanna' – Glen Wilson! A delighted Glen reports that first grandson Jack Thompson was born on 2nd February.

4. Convention notes

Contemplating Rotterdam? We have been told about another hotel not too far from the De Doelen Convention Centre that is not on the Call to Conference hotels list. It is the Hotel Breitner. www.hotelbreitner.nl or email hotelbreitner@planet.nl. Prices per night are double room Euro 100, triple room Euro 135, single room Euro 80 or Euro 85 for a single room with a big bed. All prices include breakfast. If you want to make a reservation please give your credit card number and expiry date to Meta at the hotel.

If you want to share a room with another Zontian, please let Lori know as we have details of a couple of Zontians from other Clubs in D23 that have 'spare beds' in their hotel rooms.

Note that the District meetings will be held on the afternoon of the 27th June.

Please be aware that there was a printing error with the IBAN code as stated in Zontian hard copy of Call to Conference. The correct IBAN code on page 21 should be: NL24ABNA0567051943. On page 17 the IBAN bank code is correct. The BIC code is correct on both pages: ABNANL2A. The Internet registration form at www.zonta2008.com has the correct code. This site is updated regularly – so check it regularly if you are going to Rotterdam!
